

Are You a Caregiver?

A free educational health lecture on caregiver resources

- What do caregivers need to know about normal aging vs. dementia?
- What are the different kinds of dementia?
- What is Alzheimer's disease and what are its stages?
- How can caregivers manage difficult behavior in people with dementia?
- What caregiving resources are available?

Presenter: Dante Tipiani, MSW
Health Educator
Department of General Medicine
Columbia University Medical Center

Date: Monday, May 15, 2017

Time: 5:30PM – 7:00PM

Location: Columbia Community Partnership for Health
390 Fort Washington Avenue, Ground Floor
New York, NY 10033

- ➔ A free event open to all
- ➔ The talk will be in English and Spanish
- ➔ Refreshments will be served

To RSVP call:
(646) 697-2274