2. Select your citizenship status. Then the remainder of the application fields will appear.

The screenshot shows the 'Trainee Application Form' with the 'Citizenship Status' section selected. The form is titled 'Trainee Application Form' and 'New application (in development)'. The 'Citizenship Status' section is highlighted and contains the following options:

- U.S. citizen More Info
- Non-citizen national More Info
- Lawfully admitted permanent resident More Info
- None of the above

On the left side, there are 'Application Sections' and 'Options' menus. The 'Application Sections' menu includes: Application Status Page, Trainee Application Form, Targeted Enrollment Form, Other Support, Biographical Sketches, and Supporting Documents. The 'Options' menu includes: Run completeness check, Show user access rights, Show application history, Print selected section, and Cancel current application. A 'Close' button is visible in the top right corner.

3. Ensure that all fields are updated as applicable. As you make edits the “save changes” button will appear in the upper right side of the window. Click the “save changes” button after you edit each section of the application. (you might have to scroll back up to see the button after each section is updated)

- Note that if you missed something in the section you are trying to save changes for, the system will not allow you to save until you have completed all mandatory fields in that section.

The screenshot shows the 'Trainee Application Form' with the 'Demographics' section selected. The form is titled 'Trainee Application Form' and 'New application (in development)'. The 'Demographics' section is highlighted and contains the following fields:
